

Bachelor of Science in Nursing to Master of Business Administration

SPECIAL CONSIDERATION PROGRAM

As a nursing professional, you have a great passion for caring for others and extending a helping hand to support patients. Your desire to serve with excellence reflects in your education at Mercer University's College of Nursing and dedication to research and clinical practice to improve lives. Extend your impact to the business and administration side of healthcare through a seamless transition into one of Mercer's Master of Business Administration (MBA) programs.

The University's Special Consideration Program provides students and graduates the opportunity to continue their Mercer education by offering special consideration for admission and tuition benefits to eligible candidates. Continue earning the prestige that comes with being a Mercer Bear while preparing for success as a healthcare leader. You'll learn to apply accounting, finance, marketing, and economics concepts for informed decision making in hospitals and healthcare settings. Complement your Bachelor of Science in Nursing (BSN) with core business principles to advance your career.

PROGRAM BENEFITS

- Gain special consideration for one of Mercer's MBA programs within two years of graduation from Mercer's BSN program
- Receive GMAT and application fee waivers to easily complete the application process
- Take advantage of a 30% tuition benefit for the entire graduate degree
- Enroll in daytime, evening, or online MBA classes
- Continue learning on Mercer's Atlanta campus, located in one of the fastest-growing metro areas and home to numerous hospitals and healthcare systems looking for leaders like you

Candidates seeking special consideration must meet the following program requirements. Mercer's Evening and Online MBA programs begin five times per year in January, March, May, August, and October. The Full-Time (One-Year) MBA begins four times per year in January, March, August, and October.
