EVENING MBA

The Evening Master of Business Administration is designed for:

- Learners seeking the quality of a full-time MBA program in a convenient evening format
- Leaders with the ambition to advance their career through education

Mercer's Evening Master of Business Administration in Atlanta offers a flexible, self-paced format that allows students to work and study around their busy schedules. Students may choose between an accelerated 30-hour MBA or a 36-hour MBA that includes a specialized concentration. Program completion time is approximately 12-16 months. The part-time program is designed for individuals who are managers as well as those preparing for advancement into middle management or administrative levels by further developing management and leadership skills.

The Evening MBA prepares students for the management of human, material, and financial resources in business, government, and nonprofit organizations. Students examine the social dilemmas and value conflicts that affect an organization's performance, and gain relevant experience through collaborative projects with local companies and organizations. Students will also develop an understanding of human behavior, attitudes, and skills necessary to achieve effective team building and working relationships.

Program Advantages:

- Self-paced program with individualized concentrations of study
- Once-a-week evening classes in eight-week terms
- Beautiful campus creates a serene learning environment
- Easy-to-reach location, just off I-85 and I-285 North inside the perimeter
- Professionally accomplished and highly credentialed faculty
- Assistance with securing internships and job placement
- Five start terms throughout the year
- Ability to supplement on-campus classes with online classes as desired
