Sample Three-Year JD/MBA Plan of Study

Shown below is a sample of a course of study that would permit a student to complete the dual JD/MBA degrees course requirements in three years. This is only a sample and is not intended as the only path to completion of the dual degrees program. Any alternative course of study must adhere to law school and Stetson School of Business and Economics requirements, as modified by the requirements for the dual degree program.

First Year, Fall Semester

LAW 100: Introduction to the Study of Law
LAW 103: Introduction to Legal Research
LAW 107: Contracts I
LAW 110: Criminal Law
LAW 119: Torts
LAW 151: Jurisdiction and Judgments
LAW 118: Legal Process

First Year, Spring Semester

LAW 103: Introduction to Legal Research
LAW 108: Contracts II
LAW 116: Property
LAW 149: The Legal Profession
LAW 203: Civil Lawsuits
LAW 152: Legal Writing I

First Year, Summer Semester

MBA prerequisites if ECN 150, 151; MAT 126; ACC 204, 205; FIN 362 or equivalents were not taken as an undergraduate: BAA 505, 510; BAM 530.
Second Year, Fall Semester

LAW 150: American Constitutional System
LAW 200: Introduction to Counseling
LAW 207: Legal Writing II
LAW electives
BAM 602: Financial Reporting and Analysis
BAM 606: Applied Microeconomic Analysis

Second Year, Spring Semester

LAW 154: Statutory Law and Analysis
LAW 206: Evidence
LAW electives
BAM 620: Strategic Marketing
MBA Elective

Second Year, Summer Semester

BAM 612: Corporate Financial Management
BAM 608: Global Microeconomic Environment

Third Year, Fall Semester

LAW 300: Introduction to Dispute Resolution
LAW electives
BAM 616: Management and Leadership
BAM 604: Operations Management

Third Year, Spring Semester

LAW 302: Law of Lawyering
LAW electives
BAM 622: Applied Data Analysis
BAM 699: MBA Capstone